		SASA! Outcome T
Knowledge	1	2	3	4	Positive Statements
Negative Statements / Resistant to SASA! ideas				F	/Accepting of SASA! ideas
Participants tend to say that:					Participants tend to say that:
- violence is only physical					 violence may be physical, emotional, sexual, economic
- violence against women does not have negative consequences					 violence against women has negative consequences
- women who experience violence are not at risk for HIV/AIDS					- women who experience violence are at risk for HIV/AIDS
Attitude	1	2	3	4
- some forms of violence against women are acceptable					 violence against women is never acceptable
- men should have power over women in relationships					- women and men should balance power in a relationship
- women and men should not share roles in their family and community					- women and men should share roles in their families and community
Skills	1	2	3	4
- men who use violence cannot change					 men who use violence [and are willing to change] can be supported to do so
- we should keep quiet if we know women experiencing violence					- we should reach out to and support women experiencing violence

- activists speaking out should be shunned					 activists speaking out should be supported
Behaviours	1	2	3	4
- they cannot balance power in their relationship					- that they do balance power in their relationships
 they must use / experience violence – it is unavoidable 					- they do not use / experience violence
- they do not promote non-violence in the community					- they promote non- violence in their community.

SASA! Activity Outcome Tracking Tool

Date: Activity:

Strategy:

Location:

Completed by: