To improve women’s quality of life through the creation of safe cities and communities free of violence against women and girls

GOAL

INPUTS
- Trainers
- Annual budget for expenditures to run the programme
- Technical expertise
- Equipment
- Developing partnerships with government, women’s grassroots, media, men’s groups and youth groups
- Training workshops for duty bearers and rights holders
- Assessments and mappings, including policy reviews, victimization studies, Safety Audits
- Advocacy for practical safety measures

ACTIVITIES
- Participatory mechanisms of local authorities-civil society established and operational for development of Safe Cities intervention
- Rights holders have knowledge and skills and organisational capacities to demand their rights and entitlements
- Duty bearers have knowledge, skills and partnerships to preventing and responding to violence against women
- Prevention campaigns on VAW in public space launched
- Practical infrastructural safety measures instituted by public sector

OUTPUTS
- Enhanced capacity of local government to prevent and to respond to sexual harassment and sexual assault in public spaces
- Enhanced policies and laws on prevention and punishment for sexual harassment and sexual assault in public spaces
- Increased awareness about women’s rights and entitlements regarding sexual harassment and rape
- Improved public infrastructure that incorporates practical measures to address women’s and girls’ safety

OUTCOMES
- Reduced Violence against women in public spaces, specifically sexual harassment and sexual assault
- Improved public infrastructure that incorporates practical measures to address women’s and girls’ safety

MEDIUM-TERM IMPACT
- Duty bearers have knowledge, skills and partnerships to preventing and responding to violence against women
- Rights holders have knowledge and skills and organisational capacities to demand their rights and entitlements
- Enhanced capacity of local government to prevent and to respond to sexual harassment and sexual assault in public spaces
- Enhanced policies and laws on prevention and punishment for sexual harassment and sexual assault in public spaces
- Increased awareness about women’s rights and entitlements regarding sexual harassment and rape
- Improved public infrastructure that incorporates practical measures to address women’s and girls’ safety

EXAMPLE INDICATORS
- Number of local authority staff trained
- Number of prevention campaigns on VAW launched
- Proportion of individuals who have been exposed to VAW prevention messages
- Proportion of cases of VAW in public spaces reported that were prosecuted by police
- Proportion of individuals who know about any of the legal rights of women
- % of women 15-49 who experienced sexual harassment and sexual assault in public spaces
- Number of cases of VAW in transport/other public spaces

The draft logical model will be further revised according to the project designs prepared by SROs.