6. Will you apply the information obtained in the webinar to your work? Please explain.

“Yes, especially on how the costing exercise being conducted and the rationale behind the costing exercise that could be used for advocacy”

“Yes, UN Women will be supporting a costing exercise at country level; it was extremely useful know previous experiences at country level and have insight into the many possible methodologies that have been developed in face of different country contexts and objectives.”

“Much of the information obtained from participating at the webinar has already been incorporated in a draft workplan for a costing exercise of Mauritius GBV action plan. Beyond application of the information obtained, many of the queries raised are useful to challenge our approach and establish comparisons with alternative approaches that can be applied in other countries, better suiting the national context.”

“Yes, it was useful because in our country we will be doing a costing study soon, so the tips given by the presenters were helpful. Plus it was interesting to get a broader view of the issue.”

“Yes, I was very happy to hear about the GRB based approaches which I am also using.”

“Yes, certainly helped to know other techniques and tools other countries used to costing DV. If we have to do it over again, I'm happy I know now some other tools that can be considered.”

“Sure”

Other comment:

“It's a great idea – a way to be involved in a ‘seminar’ without the expense of travel.”
